CENTRAL COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

The approach of Easter and the notification of numerous meetings is a reminder that Easter Monday and the succeeding weeks up to Whitsun bring with them the majority of the annual gatherings of the various county and diocesan associations. There is always special interest in these general meetings, and this year there is the promise of them being more successful than ever, for most of the ringing organisations have got back to something like pre-war level with the added zest which has come through the interregnum forced by the war. This year, too, the triennial elections of representatives upon the Central Council take place, and we hope to see some keen competition for the seats which are vacant. In some associations in the past sufficient importance has not been attached to representation upon the Council; but apart, perhaps, from the office of President or Master, election to the Central Council ought to be looked upon as the highest honour that a society can confer on a member, for, as we have so many times pointed out, the Council can, if its members are so minded, do much for the benefit of the Exercise. Some of the apathy which has stolen over the central body in the past may be traced to a half-hearted representation in some quarters, which has resulted in elected members failing to show initiative in bringing forward topics for discussion, and even to attend at all.

It should be the duty of every association to elect upon the Council the very ablest of its members—men who are capable not only of enjoying the pleasant reunion which the annual meeting provides, but of bringing ideas and practical suggestions into the work of the Council. The Exercise must have a central body to co-ordinate its affairs, but that body must be a capable one, and it rests with the associations to make it so. Until that responsibility is fully realised the Council cannot be expected to reach its highest utility, and associations ought not to complain that the Council is wanting in performance if they in the first place fail to elect upon it their best men. Further than this, the Council could be made a far more useful body if the associations were to send up to them for discussion subjects of general interest to the Exercise. Very rare, indeed, is it that proposals for the consideration of the Council are sent up from outside, as those who elect representatives leave everything to emanate from inside. One has only to refer to the great Friendly Societies' methods of providing business for their annual conferences to obtain an admirable plan upon which to work, and the various ringing organisations would find that the Central Council could be made a much more useful body if they themselves provided work for the Council and sent their best men to carry it out.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Tonbridge District was held at Sevenoaks on Saturday, Feb. 5th, and was attended by upwards of 50 ringers, including several members of the Lewisham District. The methods rung ranged from Grandsire to Superlative. At the usual service the association's form was used. The prayers were read by the Rev. Knight (curate), and the Rev. Harrison (who is temporarily in charge of the parish) gave an excellent address. After tea, at the Lime Tree Hotel, the business meeting was held in the Parish Room, and in the unavoidable absence of the Rev. Harrison, the Rev. F. L. Schrieber (Vicar of Shipbourne) was voted to the chair.

The District Secretary (Mr. W. Latter) read his annual report, which showed that in point of numbers the district was in a flourishing condition; in fact, nearly up to the highest mark ever reached in pre-war years. Forty-five new members had been elected, including a new band at Staplehurst, which had been reorganised, and had been receiving instruction in change ringing. Three new hon. members were elected during the year, and the District Secretary appealed to the members to do their utmost to obtain more hon. members. Four district meetings were held at Tunbridge Wells, Edenbridge, East Peckham and Staplehurst, and were all well attended. At the three last-named places the members were kindly entertained to tea by the Revs. F. W. Edwards, C. E. Ryley and C. W. Bourne respectively. The District Secretary made an earnest appeal to the members for subscriptions to the Association War Memorial, remarking that during the past year he had not received anything for this fund from the bands, and suggested that the local secretaries should make a collection in the various towers as soon as possible, so that the committee could decide on a fitting memorial to the sixty members who had made the supreme sacrifice. He also strongly appealed for increased support for 'The Ringing World,' remarking that it would be little short of a calamity to ringers if the paper ceased, as it was the only journal devoted entirely to ringers and ringing.

Mr. W. Latter was unanimously re-elected to the office of district secretary; Mr. G. Edwards (Penshurst) was re-elected district representative; and Mr. F. White (Tunbridge Wells) was also elected a member of the Central Committee.

It was decided that meetings should be held in the coming year at Hadlow, Hawkhurst, Penshurst and Tonbridge.—Votes of thanks were passed to the Rev. F. L. Schrieber for presiding, to the Rev. Harrison for the use of the bells and for his excellent address, to the Rev. Knight and Mr. Soyer (organist) and the vergers for their assistance at the service.

The District Secretary proposed that a special vote of thanks be accorded to Mr. H. J. Ford, the local secretary, for making arrangements for the meeting, and also for his perseverance in obtaining consent to hold a meeting at Sevenoaks. The tower had been closed to the association for some reason, and it was entirely due to Mr. Ford's efforts that these restrictions had been removed.—The motion was carried.

Mr. Ford, in replying, said that he was fully repaid for any trouble he had taken by having such a splendid meeting. He hoped they would have another meeting at Sevenoaks before long.

CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the Cumberland Association was held at Aspatria on Saturday, Feb. 18th, when about 25 members were present from Aspatria, Bridekirk, Cockermouth, Carlisle, Hensingham, and Egremont.—The meeting was presided over by Mr. A. W. Brighton, of London, who was supported by the hon. secretary (Mr. J. J. Wallis), of Carlisle.

The arrangements were completed for the contest, which is to be held on Easter Monday at Hensingham, when Mr. J. H. Banks, of Manchester, will be the adjudicator.

It was also decided that in future notices of meetings would be advertised through 'The Ringing World,' and it was recommended that at least one copy should be taken by each belfry.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to Mr. Brighton for presiding.

A vote of sympathy was passed to the relatives of Mr. J. Newton, who was interred the previous day. Mr. Newton was a very old ringer, and had been connected with the association for over 25 years.

After the meeting, ringing took place at St. Kentigern's, the bells being muffled, as a token of respect to Mr. Newton. Some very good practice was had, however, in Bob Major and Minor, Kent Treble Bob Major and Minor, and Grandsire Triples, Mr. Brighton taking a rope in the latter. Some had their first courses of Kent and Bob Major. The conducting was shared by Messrs. Wallis and W. T. Holmes.

SALOP ARCHIDIACONAL GUILD.

On Saturday week, a meeting was held at Bicton, when a beautiful day brought together a good attendance from several towers. Good practice was secured in a number of methods, and afterwards tea was provided at the Temperance Hotel. At the meeting which followed, it was decided to hold the next gathering at Wroxeter. Amongst the methods rung after tea were Oxford Treble Bob, Double Court, Kent Treble Bob and Stedman, and the proceedings concluded with 720 Grandsire Triples on handbells by four distinguished members of the Guild.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

A very successful meeting of the Northern Division of the Essex Association was held at Kelvedon on February 26th, when upwards of 50 members were present. A short service was held in the Parish Church, the Rev. E. F. Hay officiating. An excellent address was given by Canon Russell, of Dedham.

The tea and meeting followed in the Infant Schoolroom. Mr. C. H. Howard (Master of the Association) presided, supported by the Rev. H. T. W. Dyre (hon. secretary), and Mr. B. Redgwell (hon. district secretary).—Fifteen new members were elected.

A vote of condolence was passed with the District Master on the death of his father.

The Hon. Secretary thanked the Vicar for his generosity in providing the bountiful tea, and for his hearty welcome to the Association.—The Master complimented the Vicar and his bell warden, Mr. W. T. Elliott, upon the rehanging of the noble and melodious ring of six, which are now in excellent ringing order. The work has been carried out very successfully by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

It was decided to hold meetings at Stebbing, in April, and at Earl's Colne in June.

Touches of Minor in Surprise and other methods were rung, and some-ringers who went to Coggeshall brought round touches on the excellent ring of eight in that tower.

SOUTH-EASTERN DIVISION.

The quarterly meeting of the South-Eastern Division was held at Galleywood on Saturday last. The bells were kept going throughout the afternoon and evening in various methods, including Double Norwich. Service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. H. Keen). Tea was afterwards served at the Bear Hotel, followed by the business meeting, the Rector presiding.

The Rector and Mr. J. O. Thomson (Mayor of Chelmsford) were elected honorary members. Messrs. F. Rainbird, E. Rajabird and F. Wyatt, of Bentley, and Messrs. Harrington and Wright, of Fryerning, were elected members, and Messrs. F. Lodge (Galleywood), F. Smith (Broomfield) and S. E. Edwards (Boreham), were elected probationary members.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at South Wold, or failing that at Shenfield, in May.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the Rector for the use of the bells.

About 30 members were present, representing Boreham, Broomfield, Bentley, Chelmsford, Maldon, Springfield, Writtle, and the local company.

DEATH OF A PONTEFRACT RINGER.

The death took place, at a Leeds nursing home, on Feb. 23rd, of Mr. Thomas M. Barker, the popular conductor of the All Saints' company, Pontefract. The deceased had been ill about a fortnight, but it was not realised that anything very serious was the matter with him until Monday, the 21st, and, a specialist being called in, he was taken to Leeds for an immediate operation, which was performed on the 22nd, but despite all efforts Mr. Barker passed away late the following night. He was 36 years of age, and leaves a widow and one child.

Deceased had been connected with All Saints' tower, where he learnt to ring, for over 21 years, and joined the Yorkshire Association in 1900, being on the committee for the Eastern Division, and, until recently, Ringing Master. He had rung 45 peals, a good number of which were Stedman Triples, in which he was a capable conductor. He was also churchwarden at the time of his death, and had held office as sidesman for a number of years. He was also a keen C.E.M.S. man; indeed it is safe to say there was no movement afoot for the church's welfare but had an enthusiastic supporter in Mr. Barker.

His remains were laid to rest on Monday, Feb. 28th, the first part of the service being held at the church, which was filled to overflowing with relatives and sympathisers anxious to pay a last tribute. Ringers were present from Leeds, Horbury, York and Selby, in addition to the local men. A 504 of Stedman was rung, muffled, on All Saints' bells as the cortege was approaching the church, and a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on the handbells at the grave-side, after the committal service, by W. Pearson, P. J. Johnson, J. H. Lenton, J. Carter and H. Walters.

The bells of the Parish Church, where the deceased was a welcome and frequent visitor, were also rung, muffled, after the interment. Most of the visitors taking part. The clergy officiating were the Vicar, the Rev. A. G. Shipley, the Rev. T. H. V. Hartley, curate, and the Rev. Canon Hore, of York, a former Vicar of All Saints', and among the wreaths was one, in form of a bell, from 'his brother Ringers.'

In course of his sermon on the following Sunday evening, the Vicar (the Rev. A. G. Shipley), who was much moved, as were also many of the congregation, said they mourned the loss of a true friend. The belfry knew him, the church knew him, the communion table knew him. He was ever ready to answer the call of duty, and he would be sorely missed at that church—the church for which he had a great affection.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Ancient rivalries which existed among ringers nearly 200 years ago are recalled by anniversaries which fall in next week. The London Scholars, who, in the early eighteenth century must have been a very capable society, rang the first peal of Grandsire Cinques on the bells of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields on March 14th, 1727. This was 6006.

On the following day the College Youths, who, it is surmised, had been kept out of the tower until the London Scholars had rung the first peal on the bells, rang a longer peal in the same method, viz., 6314, which was conducted by Annable. Robert Catlin, London's leading bell founder of that day, also took part in the peal. In each of the peals mentioned two men rang the tenor.

The first peal by the Eastern Scholars, an old London Society, whose peal book is in the British Museum, was rung on March 13th, 1733. This was '5040 Grandsire Tribbles' at St. Dunstan's-in-the-East.

The anniversary of a more recent 'first peal' occurs next Thursday, for it was on March 17th, thirty years ago, that the first peal of Duffield Maximus was rung. This was at St. Martin's, Birmingham.

A meeting at Knebworth was reported in our last issue under the heading of the Hereford Association. It should, of course, have been the Hertford County Association.

The first peal rung by the College Youths on the bells at Willesden is particularly interesting from the fact that the Ancient Society opened the bells as a peal of six, 130 years ago. Incidentally it was the 100th tower in which Mr. John Thomas had rung a peal.

It is difficult to know at what age a child can learn to ring. We have marvelled from time to time at the precocity of some of the young folks, but Mr. P. Laffin's little son must be nearly the juvenile limit. Reared in the atmosphere of Birmingham ringing, this lad, who is now only eight years of age, could ring 5-6 to Plain Bob and Treble Bob on handbells when only seven.

At the ages of 10 and 12 years respectively, E. Rainbird and F. Rainbird, of Bentley, who were elected members of the Galleywood meeting of the Essex Association on Saturday, can both ring a six-score on an inside bell. They are believed to be the youngest members in the Essex Association, and great credit is due to them.

Mr. H. Middleton, of Norton, near Evesham, is lying in Evesham Cottage Hospital, having recently undergone an operation for an internal complaint. We are glad to say he is going on as satisfactorily as can be expected. Mr. Middleton was a member of the band who rang the record peal of 11,111 Stedman Cinques, at St. Martin's, Birmingham, and his many friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

C. J. Matthews, son of the Master of the Cumberlands, rang a peal of Stedman Cinques on Saturday at his first attempt. This is only his second peal on tower bells, his first having been Treble Twelve. Another unique performance by the coming generation of London ringers.

At Ipswich, where the first peal of Cambridge Surprise Maximus was rung, another peal in the same method was scored last Saturday, with the bells muffled in memory of the late Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

'Is is never too late to mend,' is the motto of the Windsor Parish Church band. After 120 years of call changes by local ringers, the present company have introduced change ringing, and last Sunday scored their first quarter-peal. It is good to hear of this progress in the Royal and Ancient Borough.

Mr. R. J. Wilkins, of Bristol, continues slowly to improve.

Mr. Cornelius Charge, of Fulham, whose name is well known as a composer, left England for Greyling, New Zealand, yesterday. The good wishes of the Exercise will go with him.

After 17 years' service as hon. secretary of the Furness and Lake District Branch of the Lancashire Association, Mr. W. Robinson has resigned office.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

FURNESS AND LAKE DISTRICT BRANCH.

The half-yearly meeting was held at Silverdale on Saturday last, but there was a very poor attendance, only three towers being represented, viz., Barrow, Broughton and Dalton. Two 720's of Bob Minor and touches of Bob Minor and Treble Bob were rung during the afternoon. Tea was provided at the Ambrose Restaurant, where the meeting was presided over by Mr. Burrows.—Kirkby was selected for a ringing meeting in June, and Hawkshead for the half-yearly meeting in September.

Mr. W. Robinson, the hon. secretary, tendered his resignation, which was received with sincere regret, for he has carried out the duties most successfully since the branch was formed 17 years ago.—Mr. W. T. Clark, Broughton-in-Furness, was appointed secretary until the next half-yearly meeting.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to the donors of the tea, and to the Vicar for his kind permission to ring. The Broughton and Ambleside ringers had to leave by an early train, and ringing was afterwards curtailed, owing to a request from the school room adjoining the church, where a concert was in progress.

BEDWELLY BELLS.ANOTHER OCTAVE FOR MONMOUTHSHIRE.

The towers of Llandaff Diocese are being gradually enriched by the addition of new bells, and another octave was completed on Thursday of last week, when two new trebles were dedicated at the Parish Church of St. Sannan, Bedwelly, Monmouthshire. The old ring of six, with a tenor of about 15 cwt., has been rehung in entirely new fittings, the cost having been defrayed by parishioners and friends. The new bells are the gift of Mr. Christopher Pond, of Blackwood, and a marble tablet erected in the tower wall in the church, records this munificent act in the following words: 'The two treble bells in this tower were given by Christopher Pond, to the Glory of God and to complete the octave, the first treble in loving memory of his beloved wife, C. J. Pond, A.D. 1920. R. W. Roberts, Rector and Rural Dean; E. Edwards, P. L. Lloyd, Churchwardens.'

The work has been carried out by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, with characteristic excellence, the 'splice' being pronounced by all who have heard the bells as remarkably fine, while the 'go' of the whole peal is perfect.

The dedication was performed by the Archdeacon of Monmouth, in the presence of a crowded congregation, the parishioners having shown the utmost interest in the restoration of their bells. The ringing was carried out by a selected band of the association, and the brief opening touch rung in the course of the ceremony was followed later by touches in the four standard methods.

LINK WITH 18th CENTURY RINGERS.

The funeral of Mr. John Heathorn, whose death has been recorded in 'The Ringing World,' took place at Guildford on Feb. 22nd, in the presence of a large gathering. In addition to the family mourners there were present representatives of the Winchester Diocesan Guild and of the Governors of the Hospital of the Blessed Trinity, of which institution Mr. Heathorn had been a brother from 1897 until his death. He was also a member of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths.

The first part of the burial service took place in Holy Trinity Church, and the final offices at the graveside were taken by the Rev. J. C. Sharp. Immediately after the Blessing four ringers stepped forward, and with handbells, gave the ringers' beautiful and moving farewell, a course of Grandsire, perfectly rung. Later, at St. Nicolas' Church, where Mr. Heathorn did most of his ringing, a half-muffled quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters were rung by: E. Etheridge 1, T. W. Radford 2, C. Hazelden 3, G. Nicholls 4, A. H. Pulling (conductor) 5, E. Raddon 6, G. Tomsett 7, W. W. Thorne 8, S. Radford 9, E. G. Death 10.

To say that the death of Mr. Heathorn removes from our midst the last living link with the old school of ringers who rang in Guildford and Godalming in the 18th century, may appear an extravagant use of language, yet so great was Mr. Heathorn's age, that he actually did know many of them personally. It was wonderfully interesting to hear the old gentleman converse, as he sometimes would, of men whose names now live only in peal records. It was one of the tragedies of Mr. Heathorn's early life as a ringer that, clever as the old ringers were, they did not pass on their skill to others, with the result that for 80 years there was very little change ringing in Guildford, and Mr. John Heathorn did not get a chance as a change ringer until 1889, when he rang his first peal, well past the prime of his life.

PRESENTATION TO JOHN CARTER.ST. MARTIN'S GUILD'S RECOGNITION OF HIS SERVICES.

Mr. John Carter, whose name has so long been associated with Birmingham, has taken up his residence in London, and at the John-sou Commemoration Dinner, on Saturday week, opportunity was taken to acknowledge his services to ringing, and to St. Martin's Guild in particular, by the presentation of an illuminated address. The presentation was made by Alderman J. S. Pritchett, Presiding Ringing Master of the Guild, who said that Mr. Carter, having made a fortune with his picture house in the Isle of Man, had migrated to London, and was now living in Park Lane (laughter). The Guild had taken the opportunity of his removal from Birmingham, which, of course, they deeply regretted, to put into writing an expression of their esteem and affection for him, and their sense of the value of his unique services to the art of change ringing. Ald Pritchett then read the address, which was beautifully illuminated and handsomely framed, as follows:—

To JOHN CARTER, Esq.—The members of the St. Martin's Guild of Church Bell Ringers for the Diocese of Birmingham beg you to accept this illuminated address on your departure from the city of your adoption, to take up your residence in London, as a mark of the goodwill and esteem in which you have been held for so many years.

They desire also to express their sincere appreciation of the untiring devotion which you have always shown to the interests of the art of change ringing, and to the prosperity of the Guild and the welfare of its members.

Your departure from their midst is a matter of great regret, but they will ever remember with feelings of gratitude your valued services, and beg to tender you their warmest wishes for your future welfare and happiness.

(Signed) JOHN S. PRITCHETT, Presiding Ringing Master.

ALBERT WALKER, Deputy Ringing Master.

A. PADDON SMITH, Hon. Sec. and Treasurer.

February 26th, 1921.

Ald. Pritchett added that had there been room it would have been signed, he was sure, by hundreds of his fellow-ringers and well-wishers, but they united with those who had signed it in the most sincere expression of their good wishes to Mr. Carter that he would enjoy his mansion for many years, that he would embark in no further speculation with the risk of losing his fortune (laughter and applause), that he would come to see them at least once a year for many years to come, and that he would enjoy good health and great happiness (loud applause).

Mr. Carter, who was taken completely by surprise, thanked the Guild very much for their gift which, he said, it was a great honour to receive. He should do his duty and come to that dinner every year as long as he possibly could (applause).

STILL YOUNG AT 83.MR. EDWIN HORREX'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

The veteran of the College Youths, who has just celebrated his 83rd birthday anniversary, does not yet intend to retire from peal ringing. Mr. Horrex, to celebrate the occasion, was anxious to ring another peal of Stedman Cinques, and eleven of his old friends gathered round him at Southwark Cathedral on Saturday last to help him to carry out his 'threat.' Unfortunately, however, a special address in the Cathedral, which had not been advertised, prevented the band gaining access to the tower until 6.30. By the time the bells were 'up' it was 6.45, and as it would have meant ringing on until about 10.45, if successful, it was decided that this hour was too late to keep bells going, and might result in complaints. A splendidly struck quarter-peal (1323 changes), was, however, rung in 62 minutes, the band standing as follows: Edwin Horrex 1, Richard T. Hibbert 2, William D. Smith 3, Thomas Faulkner 4, Challis F. Winney 5, Herbert Langdon (conductor) 6, Henry G. Miles 7, Albert A. Hughes 8, Thomas Langdon 9, William E. Garrard 10, Charles S. Burden 11, Walter E. Prime 12. The two oldest members of the band, it will be noticed, rang next to each other, viz., on the treble and tenor. Mr. Horrex rang with his usual skill and precision, his striking being an example of what good striking ought to be.

A pleasant hour was afterwards spent in the veteran's company, the band being reinforced by other friends, who all heartily congratulated Mr. Horrex, and wished him 'many happy returns of the day.'

A peal of Stedman Cinques at Southwark is a four hour matter, and it is, therefore, all the more remarkable that a man of 83 years should be strong enough in health to make such an attempt. A start for the peal is to be made to-morrow.

THE JOHNSON DINNER.

THE GUILD AND THE CHURCH OFFICIALS.

In responding to the toast of 'Continued Prosperity to the St. Martin's Guild,' Mr. A. Paddon Smith, the Hon. Secretary, said it was always a very great pleasure to organise that function. There was some trouble in it, but when he looked round that room and saw that the great majority of those present were not entirely miserable (laughter), he felt to some extent rewarded. It was also an agreeable position to be in to be secretary of a Guild like St. Martin's Guild, for they were closely in touch with all the officers and people belonging to the Church, and especially with the man to whom the belfry belonged (applause). They had present that evening, as showing how closely they were in touch with the officials of St. Martin's, the Rector of Birmingham, who was, of course, Rector of St. Martin's, they had both the churchwardens, and they had also members of the choir. The fact that they had business men as churchwardens was, he thought, one reason why they always had such tip-top Rectors at St. Martin's (applause). They had a magnificent ring of bells—perhaps the finest at any Parish Church in England (applause); they had the finest organist and choir in Birmingham, and they had a band of ringers—well, they wanted to see the next lot that could beat them (laughter and applause).

Mr. Albert Walker (Deputy Ringing Master) submitted 'Kindred Ringing Societies,' and extended a hearty greeting to those members of other ringing organisations who were present. He thought it would be a great advantage if they could have more of those dinners, so that they could mix in such a happy way more often (applause). About a dozen kindred societies were represented there that evening, including the Surrey Association, by Mr. Johnson and Mr. Dean; the Lancashire Association, by several members headed by Councillor Trippier, whom they took the opportunity of congratulating upon his attaining to municipal rank; the Worcestershire Association, represented by Mr. Albert Parsons, the Master, who always made the members of St. Martin's Guild so welcome at his house once a year for an annual peal; the Staffordshire Guild, represented by Mr. Herbert Knight, the hon. secretary; the Chester Guild, represented by Mr. Crawley, and two or three others from Crewe; the Midland Counties Association, which was strongly represented; the Lincoln Guild by Mr. Rupert Richardson, the Dudley Guild by Mr. Harry Mason; the Gloucester and Bristol Association by Mr. W. T. Pates, of Cheltenham, and the Ladies' Guild by Miss Pigott (the President), and several other ladies. The Yorkshire Association was represented by Mr. J. Sykes; the Peterborough Association by that talented young lady, Miss Jutson, and her father; the Warwickshire Guild by Mr. Harry Argyle; Mr. Wilkerson, the hon. secretary, and Mr. Chapman; the Central Northants Association by Mr. Fred Wilford. They missed one or two faces, among them Mr. R. J. Wilkins, of Bristol, and also his wife. Mr. Wilkins was in a nursing home, and seriously ill, and they all wished him a speedy recovery (hear, hear). They also missed the presence of representatives of the College Youths and particularly their old friend, Mr. Ted Horrex. They were pleased, continued Mr. Walker, to see representatives of the bell founders with them, and while Mr. Albert Hughes, of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry, regretted he could not be present, they had there that evening Mr. Cyril Johnston, of the Croydon Foundry, and Mr. Pryce Taylor, of the Loughborough Foundry. He could inform these gentlemen that there was any amount of work to be done. For instance, while ringing was in progress at the Cathedral that afternoon the clapper of the tenor came out, so there was some 'soiling and heeling' to be done there (laughter and applause).

Mr. Cyril Johnston, who replied to the toast, said the visitors had all enjoyed their evening very much, and they felt that the St. Martin's Guild Dinner in memory of Henry Johnson was the best 'show' that ringers in this country put up in the year (applause). Mr. Johnston added that he would like to mention as a matter of interest that a few days before he had had a conversation with the King at an industrial exhibition where his firm had an exhibit. The King was specially brought round to look at some bells and a big clock connected with them. The King showed great interest in them, and inquired about the tuning of the bells and many other points in which he appeared to be greatly interested. He (Mr. Johnston) mentioned this, because he knew that ringers were interested in the little things as well as the big ones that happened in the bell world (applause).

A SUGGESTION TO BELL FOUNDERS.

Mr. Paddon Smith proposed the toast of 'The Ringing World,' the importance of which to the Exercise, he said, could not be overstated. Without a journal it would be almost impossible for the associations to carry on, secretaries would find their labours increased to an enormous extent, and ringers would find more than half their interest in ringing gone. It was, therefore, a disgrace that the Editor had been left to carry on the paper without adequate support from the Exercise, and should be called upon to give the labour and maintain the paper at a loss. He sincerely trusted that every ringer would become an individual subscriber, and thus assist in the effort that was being made to make the journal a paying proposition. There was also a suggestion he would like to make to the bell founders and others who relied for the whole or part of their business upon bells. If 'The Ringing World' were to stop, ringing would be so badly hit that, while he would not say the art would die out, much of the interest in it would be lost, and bell founders would find their business seriously declining. It was only by the existence of keen and enthusiastic ringers that bell restorations and augmentations were brought about, and if that keenness and enthusiasm waned it would be a bad thing for the founders. It was, therefore, a matter of vital importance to the founders to see that 'The Ringing World' was continued, and while he knew nothing of what they, as advertisers, were paying for space, he felt that, whatever it was, they should, as a means of assisting to maintain interest in ringing, and thereby increasing their business, double the price they were paying for their advertisements. He put this forward as a suggestion, which he hoped the bell founders would seriously consider (hear, hear).

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith briefly acknowledged the toast, and expressed thanks for the more than cordial welcome which he always received in Birmingham, and for the excellent support which he knew the ringers in that area gave to 'The Ringing World.'

Ald. Pritchett, on behalf of the Guild, most cordially thanked the quartet for their service on that occasion (applause). He knew that the pleasure they all had of listening to the quartet was reciprocated by them, and that they always looked forward to coming. Nevertheless, the members were greatly indebted to them (applause). Proceeding, Ald. Pritchett proposed 'The Health of the Chairman,' and tendered their thanks to Canon Grose Hodge. He mentioned incidentally that the Rector of Birmingham was, in his day, President of the Cambridge Union—a position which many notable men had occupied. And not only had Canon Hodge been president, but his son also had been President of the Union—a record which was seldom equalled (applause). They thanked the Rector for his genial presence, and for the genial manner in which he had conducted the proceedings, and they fervently hoped he would be there to preside over them for many years to come (applause).

The toast was drunk with musical honours, and felicitously acknowledged by the Rector.

This concluded the speeches, and the interesting and enjoyable evening came to a conclusion with the National Anthem.

LADIES' GUILD.

NEW NORTHANTS BRANCH.

The first meeting of the newly-formed Northamptonshire Branch of the Ladies' Guild was held at Irthlingborough on Saturday week, and attended by upwards of 50 ringers, including a goodly number of gentlemen. Owing to the much-regretted illness of the Rev. Walter Frift, the Rector, no service took place, but an excellent tea was partaken of in the Church Schools. The company unanimously accorded hearty thanks to the anonymous donor of the repast, also to Mr. W. Perkins for making all the arrangements.

The Hon. Mrs. Frift presided over the business meeting which followed; Miss C. Heppburn, of Isham (hon. secretary) and other officers also being present. Peterborough, Bedford, Desborough, Geddingdon and Isham—as well as Irthlingborough—were among the places represented. Eight new ringing members were elected, namely, the Misses D. and M. Newman, H. and W. Tyler, of Irthlingborough; Miss K. Moore, of Weekley; the Misses P. Hare and A. Parkins, of Peterborough; and Miss L. Law, of Weston Favell.

A vacancy having occurred on the Local Committee, Miss D. Newman was elected. It was agreed to hold the next meeting at Thrapston.

Mrs. Frift was cordially thanked for taking the chair, and the meeting expressed similar gratitude to the ladies who had prepared and served the tea.

During the afternoon and evening various methods were rung on the beautiful peal of eight: Cambridge Surprise Major, Double Norwich, Superlative, Bob Major, Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob and Minor.

DEATH OF MR. T. SUART.

The St. Mary's Society, Dalton-in-Furness, have lost one of their oldest members, in Mr. T. Suart, who has been a regular ringer at the Parish Church for 32 years. He was one of the mainstays of the society, and his loss is deplored by all the band. He had rung in nearly all the towers in the Furness district, and also in a few belfries in the south of the county. He was a member of the Lancashire Association for over 30 years, and he had rung over a thousand 720's of Minor in various methods, and many quarter peals of Triples and Major with the writer. The last occasion upon which he rang was on October 10th, 1920, in a 640 of Bob Major. He was taken ill soon after, and passed away on February 14th, at the age of 53 years. The interment took place on the 17th. During the time the cortege was on its way to the church, a 672 Bob Major was rung at the Parish Church, with the bells half-muffled: T. R. Jackson 1, G. Jackson 2, Miss Gilchrist 3, T. Watson 4, J. Huddleston 5, W. H. Dennison 6, J. Usher (St. James', Barrow) 7, J. Burrows (conductor) 8. Previous to ringing a vote of condolence was passed by the ringers to Mrs. Suart and family.

A Page for Sunday Service Ringers.

What is the record for Sunday Service ringing? Or, perhaps, we ought to say, what are the records? for there must be a variety of interesting records in this most important work. For instance, the Little Munden (lierts) company, a village six-bell band, rang, prior to the war, twice every Sunday for service for fifteen years without a break. Are there any other bands that can beat this performance, and what, we wonder, is the best individual record?

We shall welcome interesting paragraphs, apart from touches, relating to Sunday service ringing for publication on this page.

THE RINGER'S OFFICE.

CANON BAKER ON SERVICE RINGING.

Church bell ringers have much cause for gratification in the position that is now assigned to them. Not so long ago they were often looked upon as a necessary evil to be tolerated but not respected. A great change has now come upon the scene, as was evidenced by the recent vote in the National Assembly, when it was decided that ringers as well as organists should continue to be appointed by the incumbent, and not be handed over to the Parochial Church Councils. It was as gratifying as unexpected to hear the cries of 'Agreed, agreed,' when one was trying to enlarge on the idea that the ringer should be treated on the same footing as the organist. There should be something significant to us in that decision. For it was remarked of the organist that he is a kind of 'spiritual person.' His duties are related to the worship of the church; he is, in a sense, a minister of the sanctuary. And ringers are now recognised as holding an equivalent office in the church. So ringing for service demands the care and devotion which that recognition entails. It is up to us to show that the confidence reposed in us is not misplaced, by giving of our best in the invitation to worship, and by taking our part ourselves in that worship to which we call others. It is most opportune that at this time the Editor should call attention to this branch of our work, and proffer assistance to it in the publication of suitable touches. I do not doubt that the effort will be successful, and heartily wish it God-speed.

W. W. C. BAKER.
