THE SUFFOLK DEVELOPMENT.

The situation in Suffolk has come rapidly to a climax and Easter Monday saw, what to those outside ringing circles in that county, must appear an almost sensational development. The first inkling of what might be expected was provided by the notice 'To Suffolk Ringers' which appeared in our columns last week, which announced a meeting at Ipswich to decide upon the formation of a new society of ringers for the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich. This appeared after notice had been given of meetings of the existing St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association and the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch of the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association to be held in the same town, on the same day. The upshot of the whole business was that by thirty-one votes to seven at the first meeting, it was decided to establish a Suffolk Guild for the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, to which a considerable number of the leading Suffolk ringers gave their allegiance, including men who had previously declined to join the recently formed diocesan organisation. Following upon this the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association was dissolved, and at another meeting, the members present of the Suffolk Branch affiliated to the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association declined to carry on the branch, and passed a resolution that it should 'cease to exist.'

As a matter of 'legality' this resolution is probably ultra vires, for the branch having been established under the constitution of the Norwich, St Edmundsbury and Ipswich Association at a general meeting of members of the two counties, can hardly be thus disposed of by one section only. As a matter of practical politics, however, the action taken at Ipswich seems to us likely effectively to put an end to an organised branch of the older association in Suffolk. There is nothing to prevent them retaining their title and those members who desire to remain in their ranks, but the future in Suffolk seems to be with the new Guild. If one can form any views from the opinions which exist, there have been mistakes on both sides, and it would be a matter of satisfaction if one could believe that the dispute has come to an end. We do not know, however, what the Norwich action will be as a result of Monday's Ipswich meetings. Faced with the accomplished facts the Norfolk members may accept what appears on the face of it to be 'the inevitable,' drop the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich part of their title and devote themselves to building up a purely Norwich Diocesan Association. On the other hand it will not be surprising if a still further effort is made to retain Suffolk, although with the two ringing stronghold

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

WESTERN DIVISION SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

A most successful annual meeting of the Western Division of the above association was held at Steyning on Saturday, March 24th. The day was gloriously fine, and no doubt accounted for the record number of members who attended, the following towers being represented: St. Peter's and St. Nicholas', Brighton; Shoreham, Heene, Henfield, Horley, Shipley, Crawley, Kirdford, West Grinstead, and members of the local band.

Various methods, which ranged from Grandsire to London Surprise and Bristol, were rung till 4.30, when the party attended a short service, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. W. Cox). Tea, which was kindly provided by the Vicar, was partaken of at the Steyning Tea Gardens.

Mr. J. Thornton Rickman, the Master, presided at the business meeting which followed.

The division has held four quarterly meetings during the last year, with a very fair attendance, and it has done a little better financially than the preceding year.

Mr. A. W. Groves was re-elected divisional secretary; Messrs. Lindup, Challen and Doick were elected to the association committee; and Messrs. W. Charman, Burdfield and T. Burtenshaw were re-elected on the Committee of Advice.

The following members were also elected: Messrs. H. Nichols and E. Enticknap, of Kirdford; D. Hide, Geo. Joice, R. Green and A. Styles, of Steyning; and F. Meekens and F. Farmer, junr., of Heene.

It was proposed to hold the next meeting at Fittleworth in June. Votes of thanks were given the Vicar for providing the tea, and also for granting the use of the bells; also to Mr. Rickman for presiding, and to Mr. Hills for making the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

The party then wended their way to the tower for further ringing. This was the most successful meeting, both in point of numbers and in methods rung, held by the division for some years.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL. THE RECOGNITION OF PEALS.

There was a large assembly of members of the Hertford County Association at the annual festival held at St. Albans on Monday. Members were present from St. Albans, Harpenden, Luton, Watford, Hemel Hempstead, Leverstock Green, King's Langley, Berkhamsted, Tring, Hertford, Ware, Hatfield, North Mymms, Kimpton, Barley, Little Mundon, Bushey, Bushey Heath, Oxhey, Houghton Regis, Kensington, Fulham, Edmonton and Southgate.

At the special service held in the choir of the Cathedral, evensong was sung by the Rev. — Mayhew, and the lessons were read by the Dean of St. Albans. An especially interesting feature of the service was the address delivered, from the lectern, by Mr. G. W. Cartmel, the energetic and enthusiastic honorary secretary of the association, who chose for his text the words, St. John xv. 14, 'Ye are My friends if ye do whatsoever I command you.'

Mr. W. H. Lawrence, as outgoing president, occupied the chair at the tea and annual meeting at the Abbey Institute, which followed the service, those supporting him at the head table being the Dean of St. Albans, the Revs. G. M. Edmonds and B. Tyrwhitt Drake, and Messrs. E. P. Debenham, E. N. Wix, H. J. Loe (High Chief Ranger of the Ancient Order of Foresters), W. H. L. Buckingham, E. G. Benson and L. C. Head, and there was also among the large number present Mr. W. E. Garrard (Master of the College Youths).

The retiring president extended a hearty welcome to members, both old and new, and made reference to Mr. J. Conley, of St. Albans, who is now 87 years of age, and has been ringing for 62 years. He went on to say that the members of the association might congratulate themselves upon the fact that the year just passed had witnessed the highest standard of ringing since the association was formed (applause). They had also created a record for England by ringing Cambridge Surprise from Minor to Maximus (applause). The Edmonton hand and others had also rung the first peal of Grandsire Cinques on handbells recently for the association. Mr. Lawrence also expressed gratitude to the Dean of St. Albans for allowing Mr. G. W. Cartmel to give the address at their service that day.

The confirmation of the provisional election of Miss Kate Wells, of Cambridge, and of Mr. Derrick Luck, of Kimpton, was agreed to.

The following were nominated as new members: Messrs. Spicer and Frank Beeson (St. Albans) R. Richardson, G. Richardson and H. Nobbs (Hatfield), J. W. Todd (Houghton Regis), and W. S. Lawrence (Little Mundon).

Mr. Cartmel read his annual report, which was a record of excellent progress, and this was unanimously adopted.

Mr. E. P. Debenham, who presented the treasurer's annual report, stated that the year commenced with a balance in hand of £5 7s. 11d. The year's receipts had amounted to £35 19s. 11d., and the expenses to £36 7s. 11d., leaving a balance due to the treasurer of 18s. 10d. There was a surplus fund of £29 17s. 6d., and the association also held £15 15s. 9d. of War Stock. Mr. Debenham explained that although there was a small adverse balance on the year's working, the association was by no means bankrupt, nor need its members look on the black side of things in regard to the financial position.

The treasurer's report and statement of accounts was adopted.

MR. E. P. DEBENHAM ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Mr. W. H. Lawrence proposed the election of Mr. E. P. Debenham as his successor in the presidential chair for the coming year, and in so doing observed that he was sure the selection was one that would meet with the hearty approval of all the members.

Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham, who seconded, said he was sure they could not have a better president than their 'good old friend' (applause).

The newly-elected president said the Hertford County Association was one that it did them good to belong to, as it brought them together as friends. Long might that friendship last between those who had 'done their bit,' and the youngsters coming on. They had had some good ones in St. Peter's (St. Albans) during the year, and he had been very pleased to see that a certain amount of progress had been made in connection with change ringing by the young ones who had attended the district meeting held a few weeks ago, and again that afternoon. As to the presidency of the association Mr. Debenham said he would have preferred to wait for two years before taking that office, as 1925 would mark the completion of his fifty years as a ringer (applause). Mr. Debenham said that during his year of office he would endeavour to attend at least one district meeting in each district, and he would look for good behaviour and punctual attendance at the district meetings (laughter and hear, hear). He also stated facetiously: 'If Easter is not altered I shall have an extra three weeks of presidency included in my year. They get measures through so quickly nowadays, and they may turn Easter away from the moon; but unless it is turned away from the moon, I shall have three weeks added to my occupancy of the position of president.'

On the proposition of the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake, seconded by Mr. H. Eden, Mr. Debenham was re-elected treasurer, Mr. Debenham observing, amidst laughter, that he did not desire to occupy all the offices in that association. 'Please don't think I want to be the capital I in the association,' he added, to which the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake retorted, '£ s. d. is what we want you to be' (laughter).

Mr. Debenham said he did not want to be saddled with the deficit which the association's finances showed this year, and added that if towers that were in arrears would forward their subscriptions without delay, that deficit would be turned into a balance in hand.

Mr. G. W. Cartmel was, on the proposition of Mr. Winney, seconded by Mr. W. H. Lawrence, re-elected hon. secretary amidst applause.

As representative of the association on the Central Council, the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake was re-elected, and Mr. E. D. Livermore and Mr. J. Prewett were re-elected hon. librarian and hon. auditor, respectively, with thanks for their services.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL'S AUTHORITY.

Mr. E. P. Debenham proposed the following alteration to rule, 'No peal of 5,000 changes or upwards on five or more bells shall be entered in the peal book that is not recognised as such by the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, or other body for the time being exercising the powers of the Central Council with regard to peals.' He explained that the object of the alteration was to bring the association into line with the Central Council with regard to the selection of performances that should be regarded as peals. The Central Council was the 'Parliament' of church bell ringing in England, and if they could not decide, on behalf of the Exercise at large, what performances should be recognised as peals, he did not think the association should decide for itself, and it would be much better to leave it to the Central Council to define.

Mr. Buckingham seconded the motion, remarking that he did not think it was a good thing for the association to go for peals that were not recognised by the Central Council; and if they did not recognise the Central Council, it was of no good sending a representative to it.

Mr. Ayre inquired what was at the back of the mind of the proposer; was it in reference to the 30-method peal rung at Norbury, or had it to do with any other method?

Mr. Debenham said that was not present in his mind at all. We were living in a democratic age, and he thought they had better accept what the Central Council accepted, and leave it there. If the Central Council recognised any performance as worthy of record as a peal then the Hertford County Association should do likewise.

Mr. M. Hibbert inquired whether, if anyone brought in a great innovation in Minor methods and the Central Council disagreed, what line would the association take?

Mr. Debenham: They must either accept it or reject it.

Mr. Eden expressed the view that unless all the associations came into line with Mr. Debenham's proposal, it would be hardly fair to the Hertford County Association.

The Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake said it seemed that the 'spliced' method of ringing was excluded under the old rule, and now if Mr. Debenham's motion were passed it would be included. He did not think any other association would be accepting any peal that this association, if they adopted this rule, would be refusing, unless they went directly contrary to any ruling of the Central Council. There was no idea of cutting anything out, but rather of including Minor methods.

Mr. Debenham: It is rather a widening than a narrowing.

Mr. Cartmel explained that Mr. Debenham's idea in bringing this motion forward was to include everything that was a peal. Today ringing was making such rapid strides that they did not know what would happen in twelve months' time. The Hertford Association were going to lead the other associations; they wanted to welcome all the peals that were rung in 20, 30, or 40 methods.

The motion was eventually agreed to.

DISTRICT SECRETARIES.

As district secretaries, Messrs. F. R. Bacon (Northern Division), W. Nash (St. Albans), H. Eden (Watford) and W. H. Lawrence (Eastern Division) were re-elected, and Mr. W. Ayre was elected to succeed Mr. Reeve (resigned) for the Western Division.

Mr. Debenham moved, and the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake seconded, a vote of thanks to the Dean of St. Albans, and the Vicars of St. Peter's, St. Michael's and St. Stephen's Churches for placing their belfries at the disposal of the members for the annual festival. Mr. Debenham making special reference to the admirable address, at the annual service in the Cathedral, delivered by Mr. G. W. Cartmel, whose words they would treasure in the days to come. He referred also to the sustained interest which Mr. Cartmel showed in the work of the association, and said if it were not for him the association would not be in its present flourishing condition.

The Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake jokingly remarked that the Dean of St. Albans now had such an excellent deputy on the Cathedral staff of preachers that it would be an excellent thing if he would decide to go round to the small country parishes and give the incumbents there a holiday.

The Dean of St. Albans, in the course of his reply, also alluded to Mr. Carmel's address, which, he said, was one they would all value, and one which he hoped would aid them in their work. He said he liked to look upon ringers as being in a very real sense workers for God. This was the only ideal that could bring about true friendship amongst them. Incidentally the Dean said he believed it was fifty years ago this year since the Abbey Society was revived, and he expressed the hope that the jubilee would be marked by great success. They had lost their old captain, Mr. Whitbread, who had been with them for many years, but they were very glad to have as his successor Mr. Goodenough (applause).

A NEW SOCIETY FOR SUFFOLK. UNITY OF ACTION ACHIEVED AT IPSWICH MEETINGS.

There have been a number of meetings in Suffolk during the last few years which have claimed to speak for the county, but such a claim has in each case been disputed. There can, however, be no doubt about the meetings held at Ipswich on Easter Monday. Suffolk ringers had made up their minds that it was quite time that they managed their own affairs, and at 12.30 they assembled in a crowded meeting under the Archdeacon of Sudbury as president. Voting papers had been sent out to all the towers where ringing is carried on in the diocese, and so many were returned to Mr. Charles F. Bailey, of Leiston, that he was able to inform the meeting that an overwhelming majority of both towers and ringers were in favour of forming a new society. He, therefore, proposed that such a society be now formed.

This was seconded by Mr. C. J. Sedgley, of Ipswich, and opposed by the Rev. W. C. Pearson, of Henley, who wanted a joint association of the two counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

The Rev. H. Drake said he was really in favour of such a joint association, and had been trying to work for it for nearly two years, but the mention of such a thing simply infuriated their Norfolk friends, so the only practical course was to adopt Mr. Bailey's proposal, and when their society was formed and had been working some years, co-operation might be possible, but at present it was impracticable. He denied Mr. Pearson's statement that he had organised this meeting; the movement was entirely spontaneous throughout the county, and his share of the work was confined to posting the notices and voting papers.

The proposal was carried by 31 against 7.

It was then agreed that the name of the society be 'The Suffolk Guild of Ringers for the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich.'

The Bishop was then elected patron; Archdeacon Farmiloe, president; Archdeacon Darling, vice-president; Mr. C. J. Sedgley, Ringing Master; the Rev. H. Drake, secretary; Mr. C. E. Fisher, treasurer; and the following members, in addition to the district secretaries, on the committee, Mr. A. Symonds, the Rev. R. L. Gardner, Mr. Dixon, Mr. Chas. Bailey, Mr. Poppy, Mr. Charles Mee. The rules were left to the committee, and it was decided to hold the annual meeting at Ipswich in July.

ST. EDMUNDSBURY AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION DISSOLVED.

A meeting followed at 2.30 of the existing St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association, and it was unanimously decided that at the close of that meeting the society be dissolved. A report of the whole working of the association was read and passed, and it was decided to ask the secretary to print it, together with a list of peals already rung by the association, out of the existing funds in his hands.

With regard to the matters left to this meeting by the previous meeting, it was decided to ask the New Guild to absorb the old association, to take over the life members, and those who have already paid their subscriptions, in return for which any balance in hand will be paid to the new Guild: £5 to be paid at once on account.

At 3.30 another crowded meeting was held; this time, of the members of the Norwich Diocesan Association. It only lasted about ten minutes. After formal business, Mr. George Wilson resigned the position of secretary pro tem., saying he had tried in vain to obtain a successor. After the chairman had appealed several times for nominations to this and the other vacant offices in vain, Mr. H. Day proposed, and Mr. B. Poppy seconded, that this branch cease to exist.

On being put to the meeting, it was carried, with only one dissentient.

LYMINGE, KENT.—For Easter Eve, 826 Grandsire Triples, from Holt's Original: K. Gordon (age 14) 1, F. Castle (Elham, age 14) 2, A. Castle (Elham) 3, G. Cullum 4, A. Tanton 5, R. Webb 6, L. Head (Maidstone) 7, A. Webb 8. Conducted by L. Head. Longest length by 1, 2, 6 and 8.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION. ANNUAL MEETING AT DERBY.

It was at Derby in 1882 that the association everywhere known by the abbreviated nomenclature of M.C.A. first saw the light; and for many years the place was the sole headquarters. The movement spread, and other towns as great or greater came into the combine, and ultimately it was decided to visit each of these in turn, viz., Burton, Derby, Nottingham and Leicester. Thus, once in every four years ringers turn at Easter to one of these centres, in their respective order, and on Monday last Derby was the venue. Although a popular place, and almost centrally situated, the railway authorities always seem to give the celebrated Midland town a 'miss-in-bank.' No trips are run on Easter Monday, although one can pass through and travel far afield at excursion rates, but as far as Derby is concerned it is full fare. The Midland motto of 'Semper idem' is loyally carried out, but such conservatism is not compatible with progress. There was a time when Derby went much further—so its traducers say—and that cyclists were forbidden to ride through the iron gate on a Sunday; in fact, if anyone was seen by the Guardian in Blue to be laughing, winking, or wagging his ear, he was promptly 'run in!' I do not vouch for the truth of this, for some of the ringers of Derby are lively enough to ward off depression, and are never averse when they appear before a judge in chambers!

On this occasion the merry bells of St. Andrew were silent, the reason being that they are undergoing rehanging and augmentation to ten. Fortunately, St. Luke's bells of 30 cwt. tenor, unring for many years, gave tongue after rehanging, as did St. Peter's (8) and a bright sparkling ring of eight at St. Alkmund's. The ten bells of All Saints were also in evidence during the day, but it is much to be desired that the peal should be rehung, recast and augmented to twelve. All Saints is a grand old tower, and a landmark for miles around. No effort should be spared to make the bells worthy of the church. Among the ringers one met could be seen faces from Chesterfield, Bolsover, Burton, Nottingham, Loughboro', and from many places north of the Trent.

The sub-committee appointed to consider the certificate of merit question met at St. Alkmund's Institute. This question, which has been discussed in 'The Ringing World' has many sides. There are two classes of objectors, one that thinks the Surprise methods are too far ahead for them, and, therefore, no differentiation should be made; the other, that their prowess is so well known that it would be infra dig. to mention it! There is another school of thought that thinks differently, and believes that honour should be given wherever it is due. The movers in this scheme hardly expected it to be accepted off-hand. Few pioneers see the fruition of their labours. It usually remains for the after followers to garner the work of the pioneer, but it should never be forgotten that the impossibilities (1) and ideals of goneby ages are the common places of to-day! Some thought that a test of striking should be asked for, in other words, prize ringing without the prize. A cup was also offered for good striking, but realising the half-digested opinion at present extant, it was resolved to refer the scheme back to the committee for further consideration.

The general committee met later in the same place to transact the business when the matter of finance was discussed. As notified in the 'report,' the hon. treasurer, Mr. W. Willson, brought forward the question of investing some of the funds in hand. Owing to the initiative of the president, Ald. R. B. Chambers, the association possessed a considerable number of patrons and hon. members, so much so that their subscriptions almost equalled those of ringing members. Never in its history had the M.C.A. been so affluent, and while the bank balance brought little interest on current account, it was possible to invest in registered stock of Government Loan at £5 per cent. per annum free of tax. This involved the question of trusteeship, and the hon. treasurer suggested that £100 be bought, with the president as trustee. After discussion, it was agreed to postpone the investment until the next quarterly meeting. It was also resolved to allocate £10 to the 'Bell Repair Fund,' from which a grant of £5 was made to the church at Castle Donington, on condition the work of rehanging the bells is satisfactorily carried out.

A ringers' service was held at 4 o'clock in All Saints' Church, when the Ven. Archdeacon of Nottingham occupied the pulpit. Ringers' hymns were used, and the reverend gentleman gave an interesting discourse to an appreciative audience. At the close of the service, a collection was taken for the 'Bell Repair Fund.'

Following this, tea took place in the Assembly Rooms, Market Place, when about 150 members and friends sat down to an excellent repast. The meeting was graced by the presence of Mrs. Chambers, Miss Chambers, Ven. Archdeacon Conybeare, the Revs. R. F. Wilkinson, R. W. Ellison, M.A., T. S. Wiling, J. T. Mumford, M.A., and others. The business meeting followed on the heels of the tea.

The election of general officers was then proceeded with. Only the present occupants of the offices were nominated, viz., president, Ald. R. B. Chambers, J.P.; secretary, Mr. A. C. Wright; treasurer, Mr. W. Willson; and these were re-elected nem con.—Votes of thanks to them for past services were passed, with applause.

For the next quarterly meetings it was resolved to visit Loughboro' at the opening of the carillon in July; Bakewell, Derbyshire, in September, while a place to be chosen was decided on for the January meeting in 1924. Nottingham falls for the annual meeting at Easter next, according to rota.

Thirty-one new members were elected, bringing the total membership up to 953.

In moving a vote of thanks to the clergy for the use of the bells and to the local officers for the excellent catering, Mr. Willson said that Derby could now consider itself 'somebody.' It had got into the semi-final for the English Cup at football, had licked Leicester once at cricket (by a fluke) and now it remained to ring next time on the augmented ten at St. Andrew's.

Ringling throughout the day was of a first-class order, most of the standard methods being negotiated to the satisfaction of all concerned, while others, who only meet their friends at these meetings, retired to some of the cosy old 'snugs' to be found in Derby, where liquid nourishment is dispensed, and where they could ring their peals of long ago over again. Ah, well, they were good judges, too, for life is made up of anticipations—and memories.

In the evening, thanks to the generosity of Ald. Chambers, a social and 'smoker' was given in the Assembly Rooms, when the following items were well rendered: 'Napoleon,' Littleover Handbell Ringers; song, 'I care not' (Basil Hood), Mr. A. Roome; duet, 'Ring out, wild bells' (J. Blocksley), Messrs. Roome and Smith; song, 'The bellringer' (V. Wallace), Mr. A. P. Smith; quartette, 'Comrades in arms' (A. Adams), Messrs. Roome, Robinson, Dunning and Percival; 'The Ash Grove,' Littleover Handbell Ringers; 'Arlene Waltz' (Balfe), Littleover Handbell Ringers; song, 'The Songs of Araby' (F. H. Clay), Mr. A. Roome; duet, 'Flow gently, Dea' (H. Parry), Messrs. Roome and Smith; song, 'The Ringer' (Hermann Lohr), Mr. A. P. Smith; quartette, 'The long day closes' (Sullivan), Messrs. Roome, Robinson, Dunning and Percival; 'The Blue Bells of Scotland,' Littleover Handbell Ringers.

RESULT OF A CYCLING ACCIDENT.

It is with regret we have to record the sad death of Mr. F. T. Sands, of Mayfield, Sussex, which occurred at Tunbridge Wells Hospital, on March 20th inst., as the result of an accident on the previous day. While cycling to collect orders he came into collision with another cyclist, and was thrown with such violence from his machine that he received terrible injuries to his skull, to which he unhappily succumbed.

The deceased was elected a member of the Mayfield ringers in Jan., 1912, and became secretary and sub-captain in 1921, which office he held at the time of his death.

He was buried at St. Dunstan's, Mayfield, on March 26th, and was borne to the church by four of his fellow ringers and four brother Foresters. In the evening touches were rung with bells muffled and the hand stroke of tenor open, friends from Rotherfield assisting.

Mr. Sands, who was only 32 years of age, was born at Mayfield, where he had lived all his life, with the exception of the time he served in the war. He leaves a widow and three children, the youngest being only six weeks old, and for them much sympathy is felt.

BRIGHTON RINGERS' SOCIAL.

Some 14 of the members of the St. Nicholas' Society, Brighton, recently met for a social evening at the house of Mr. F. Bleach, one of the band. An excellent repast, prepared by Mrs. Bleach and a friend, was most heartily enjoyed by the company, which was later increased by the arrival of one of the honorary members — the Rev. C. H. Clarke.

Music and song followed, the solo items being contributed chiefly by Messrs. John Jay, Fred K. Palmer, E. Bleach, A. York Bramble, and the Rev. C. H. Clarke. The thanks of the company were due to Mr. and Mrs. Bleach and to their son-in-law, who so ably accompanied throughout the evening—an evening marked by the prevalence of the true social spirit.

DEATH OF FORMER HEPTONSTALL RINGER

At Heptonstall Parish Church, the bells were muffled for evensong on Palm Sunday as a mark of respect to the late Mr. William Robertshaw, who was conductor at this church previous to removing to Haworth some 35 years ago. A touch of 1,008 Bob Major was rung in 40 minutes by T. Robertshaw 1. W. Crabtree 2. Mrs. W. Crabtree 3. F. Robertshaw 4. J. A. Robertshaw (longest length) 5. J. Robertshaw 6. R. Nowell 7. H. BELFRY GOSSIP.

The Salisbury Branch of the Salisbury Guild is badly in want of a new secretary, the acting secretary, through pressure of other duties, being unable to hold the necessary branch meetings or to maintain and encourage the work of the bells. Here is a chance for an enthusiast.

Plans are under discussion for strengthening the tower of Tisbury Church, Wilts, so that the fine peal of bells there may again be brought into use.

The first non-conducted peal of Minor in seven methods was rung at Batley on April 6th, 1867.

On April 7th, 1741, at St. Sepulchre's, Snow Hill, London, the first peal of Treble Bob Royal was rung. This was a 5,200 'Oxford Triple Bob, ten in,' by the Eastern Scholars.

It was on April 7th, 1761, that the peal of 40,320 Bob Major was begun at Leeds, in Kent, to be finished on the next day, thirteen men taking part.

The rare performance for those early times, of two peals in one day was completed on April 9th, 1751. These were 5,800 Double Bob Major and 5,040 Bob Major, both rung at St. Mary's, Hillingdon. John Holt took part in these peals.

On April 11th, 1888, 13,265 Grandsire Caters was rung at Appleton in 8 hours 5 minutes, and on April 12th, 1909, the 18,027 Stedman Caters was rung at Loughborough in 12 hours 18 minutes. Easter Monday has been a favourite day for long peals.

The composition of 5,184 London Surprise Major, published last week under the name of Mr. S. Grove, was first produced by Mr. J. W. Washbrook, and was rung in 1896. Several correspondents have pointed this out, and it is only fair to Mr. Grove to say that, having regard to the qualities of the peal, he felt convinced he could not be the first to obtain it.

In reference to Mr. Kim's letter published last week it should be stated that true peals of Triples in the methods referred to can be obtained if the Singles used are Holt's Singles.

The report of a peal rung on March 28th at Newton-in-the-Isle, Cambs, has been sent without the name of the conductor.

The following is the copy of an interesting old peal tablet at St. Nicholas Cathedral, Newcastle-on-Tyne: 'On March 27th (Easter Sunday), 1842, the Union Society of Newcastle and Gateshead change ringers, in company with Messrs. John Cox and John Freeman, two members of the St. James' Youtlis, London, rang on the bells in this tower a true and complete peal of Holt's Grandsire Triples, consisting of 5,040 changes in the unprecedented short period of 2 hours and 59 minutes. Tenor 36 cwt. The harmony produced by the skill and talent employed on this occasion, displayed to the science an unequalled specimen of the sublime, beautiful and intricate art of change ringing. The following are the names of the artists who rang: Chas. Walker 1. John Elliott 2. Allan Stephenson 3. John Freeman 4. John Cox 5. Robt. Balmra 6. George James 7. Richd. Wanless 8. Conducted by John Cox. Stewards, R. Balmra, Geo. James.'

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION. HINCKLEY DISTRICT MEETING.

A most successful meeting of the Hinckley District was held at Peckleton and Kirkby Mallory on Saturday, March 24th, when 23 members and friends attended from Barwell, Croft, Desford, Hinckley, Earl Shilton, Stony Stanton, South Wigston, Wigston Magna, and the local company. The bells were kept going in the standard methods till 7.30 p.m. At the kind invitation of the Rector (the Rev. S. R. Pocock) the ringers adjourned to the Rectory for their meeting. This was presided over by the vice-president (Mr. C. H. Webb), who was supported by the Rev. S. R. Pocock, who was unanimously elected an honorary member of the association.

Five ringing members were elected, and it was decided to hold the next meeting at Wolvey, in April.

Thanks to Rectors for use of bells at Peckleton and Kirkby Mallory were passed.—The Rev. S. R. Pocock, in replying, said, speaking for himself and his neighbour (the Rev. W. Townshend), he could assure the members it gave them great pleasure not only to place bells at the ringers' disposal, but also to hear them rung.

A very hearty vote of thanks was given to the Rector for his kindness in providing refreshments at the Rectory after the meeting, and the Rector said what a pleasure it was to know of the good work the ringers were trying to do. He hoped they would all be able to pay them a visit on many future occasions.

THE HANDBELL PEAL AT SAFFRON WALDEN To the Editor.

Sir,—As I was partly responsible for the publication of the statement regarding the handbell peal at Saffron Walden, being the first by anyone of its members, I find 'Interested' is quite right. I, therefore, wish to withdraw that statement, although the peal was not included in the late Mr. Nathan Pitstow's list of peals published at the time of his death in 1914. It being the first handbell peal rung in Saffron Walden, still holds good.—Yours faithfully,

F. DENCH.

TEN-BELL TOWERS.

This article is the first of a series, kindly supplied by Mr. J. R. Jerram of Salisbury, upon the bells in some of the ten-bell towers of England.

ST. MAGNUS, LONDON BRIDGE.

There was originally at the church of St. Magnus, London Bridge, a peal of eight bells cast by Richard Phelps in 1714. In 1748 two trebles were added by Robert

DEATH OF MR. J. S. AMBLER.

The Halifax, St. John's, company of ringers have sustained a severe loss, in their sadly depleted numbers, by the death of Mr. J. S. Ambler, on Tuesday, March 20th (after an illness of only three days) from sugar diabetes. Mr. Ambler had rung 69 peals in various methods for the Yorkshire Association, his membership of that body dating from 1888. He had also occupied all the senior offices of the Halifax and District Association, and his many activities made him known to an exceedingly wide circle of friends. The deceased had also been a regular member of parties of ringers organised each Whitsuntide by Mr. T. Maude, of Pudsey, to visit various parts of the kingdom, and his genial presence will be greatly missed at these functions, where his kindly disposition made him greatly esteemed by the other members of the party.

The funeral was led by a procession of some four hundred men, connected with the R.A.O.B., Plumbers' Institute, Master Plumbers' Association, and various change ringing organisations, and after a service at All Souls' Haley Hill, the interment took place at All Souls' Cemetery, both services being conducted by the President of the Yorkshire Association (the Rev. C. C. Marshall). Inside a square, formed by some two hundred members of the various orders, the last offices of the church were ministered at the graveside, the Grand Master of the R.A.O.B. conducting the rites of that order at the conclusion of the church service.

A plain course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by G. Naylor, T. B. Kendall, P. J. Johnson and J. Broadley, after which muffled touches of Treble Bob Royal and Grandsire Caters were rung on the bells at the Parish Church. Great sympathy is felt for Mrs. Ambler and her son and daughter in their bereavement, while the loss of an enthusiastic and devoted helper to his ringing friends will be greatly felt, and it will be long ere the memory of our deceased comrade will be forgotten by his many friends.

JOHN NEW'S RINGING BOOK.

BITS FROM THE RECORD OF AN OLD TWICKENHAM RINGER.

The ringing book of John New, of Twickenham, who was born on June 14th, 1790, sets at rest all doubts as to the peal at Twickenham, the other day being the first of Major on the bells, for therein is recorded a complete peal of Bob Major, 5,040 changes in 3 hours 4 minutes, on October 10th, 1810. This peal was rung by Will Winslow 1, J. New 2, J. Bates 3, B. Harris 4, E. Nelhams 5, E. Unday 6, W. Webb 7, G. Cole 8, and was conducted by G. Cole.

This ringing book, which has kindly been lent to us by Mr. T. Beadle, of Isleworth, is extraordinarily interesting. It was evidently begun by John New on October 27th, 1811, for it contains his name and this date boldly lettered on the fly leaf. Its principle object seems to have been to place the writer in possession of a copy of various methods and compositions, and with great pains and much obvious labour he has copied out the letterpress and figures relating to many of the methods and peals in 'The Clavis,' beginning with the changes on three bells and going on to twelve. Further on, John New's peals are recorded, carefully written, ruled round in red, and some of the special performances crudely decorated with designs of bells.

Although it is obvious that much of the writing was done at a later date, the owner of the book had apparently completed what he first set out to do, a few months after he started, for on the last page he has inscribed, 'Patience is a Virtue, And that you may see; this Book was begun and Finished by Me, John New, Feb. 27th, 1812.' As the years progressed, quite a variety of matters was crowded into spare spaces, ranging from the figures of handbell tunes, to business accounts and recipes for minor ailments. Among the last named, for instance, is a recipe by Mr. Thomas Ewington, which was written into the ringing book, apparently, on Dec. 7th, 1822: 'Tincture of Cantherides rubbed on the face three times a day is very serviceable in the Rheumatism, and take one spoonful of tincture of Gum Guaiacum put into three-quarters of a pint of water gruel going to bed at night.' Perhaps John New was suffering from rheumatism.

John New rang peals at many of the churches in Middlesex and Surrey, for at that time, between 1809 and 1822 there was an enthusiastic band of ringers at Twickenham, and peal tablets still remain at Isleworth and Richmond recording their prowess. Their conductor was George Cole, and he must have been a very able bob caller, for in addition to many peals of Grandsire, including Holt's Original, there are peals of Bob Major, Oxford Treble Bob Major and Royal, and Stedman Caters. The record of the first peal of Stedman Caters which they rang, occupies a position of special prominence in John New's ringing book. A full and decorated page is devoted to it, and it is thus recorded: 'On Sunday, October the 3rd, 1819, was rung at All Saints' Church, Fulham, Middlesex, after the long perseverance of two years and upwards, the arduous task of Stedman Caters. A complete peal of 5,031 changes, which was Performed in 3 Hours and 12 Minutes, it being the first Peal ever Performed in that Tower in the Method of Stedman, the Performers were: Messrs.

John New	1st	John Cooper	6th
John Barber	2nd	George Cole	7th
Charles Barber	3rd	William Platt, senr.	8th
Scholes Bamford	4th	John Platt	9th
John Stratford	5th	Edward Hudnot	10th

This Peal was Composed, Call'd and Rung by George Cole.

Brought Round at Hand and Finished in Fine Style.

John New appears to have been at the opening of the twelve bells at Painswick on October 11th, 1819, to have rung at Gloucester on the previous day, and at Stroud on the day after, for a record of 'touches' at these places appears on a page following a list of towers at which he had rung. He was also present at the first opening of Mitcham Bells on April 26th, 1820, and on Feb. 16th in that year he rang a 'dumb peal for George, the King of Great Britain, the best King ever reign'd in England.'

Various bits of doggerel verse intersperse other matters and one 'a Ringer's Song,' extols the virtues of a peal of Oxford Treble Bob rung at Richmond, on Feb. 11th, 1809, presumably John New's first peal—at any rate it is the earliest recorded in this book. It was a 5,120.

They did ring so neat and clear,

That you might travel many a mile and not such ringing hear.

A Tite young Youth the Treble rung, his name it was John New.

The second veteran Nelhams, he did ring both just and true.

The third, Jem Cole, well play'd his part,

Tho' he so lately learnt the art.

The 4th Scholes Bamford he did ring, altho' but weak and low,

Yet while that he could stand and ring, his rope he'd ne'er let go.

The fifth Jack Bates, a staunch brave Boy

Did knock about to all our joy.

The sixth was rung by William Platt, a noble striker He,

The 7th his nephew, stout young Jack, his model to a Tee.

They made the Musick oo well tell

No Slur or Blur, but Ding, Dong, Bell.

The Tenor by George Cole was rung, he call'd the Peal likewise, And had the Londoners been there, it had struck them with surprise.

The first Peal ere he rung at all
He did both manfully ring and call.

Now since the peal we have gone through, so early in the year,
Let's down to White's, of Staunch True Blue, and drink his nut brown beer.

And if that will not touch us fine,
He's got some glorious elder Wine!

Some of the habits of peal ringers a hundred and more years ago do not seem to have been vastly different to those of the present generation.

John New, and at any rate some of the other Twickenham men, were apparently members of the College Youths, for a peal of 'Oxford Treble Bob' was rung at Kensington on Dec. 8th, 1822, 'by eight of the Society of old College Youths.'

John New made a family register of his ringing book, and in it he recorded the dates of his own birth, and marriage, and the names of his children and the dates of their birth. He was married to Elizabeth Shores at Twickenham Church on Sept. 4th, 1814. One may imagine he was a decorator, glazier and sign writer by trade, judging from his accounts, and he must have provided a good many peal boards, for he notes against some of his peals, as, for instance, one of 'Gransire Tripples' rung on Easter Day, March 29th, 1812, at Twickenham, 'Printed the Board for it.'

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

GATHERING AT CAMBRIDGE.

The annual meeting was held at Cambridge on Easter Monday. The committee held a short meeting, at which the president (the Rev. A. H. F. Boughey) presided. The hon. secretary's balance sheet, which showed a balance in hand of £10 11s. 11d., was approved, and the names of the officers were suggested for the approval of the general meeting.

The service was at Great St. Mary's at noon. The Vicar (the Rev. C. L. Hulbert) was assisted by the hon. secretary, and the lesson was read by the Rev. H. B. Woolley. The Rev. Canon S. T. Adams, Vicar of Holy Sepulchre and Rural Dean, gave an inspiring address. His text being 1 Cor., x. 31. At the close he quoted some words on the qualities required for successful change ringing, and dwelt on one, viz., 'Unselfish team work.'

A luncheon had been arranged at the Dorothy Cafe, at which 39 ringers and friends were present—a much smaller number than last year. After lunch came the general meeting, the chair being taken by Mr. Woolley as the president, who was suffering from a severe cold, begged to be excused from using his voice. The recommendations as to the officers were approved by the meeting: Hon. secretary, the Rev. R. Copeman; treasurer, Mr. F. C. Turner; auditor, Mr. T. R. Dennis; district secretary, Ely Archdeaconry, Mr. A. E. Austin; district secretary, Huntingdon Archdeaconry, the Rev. H. B. Woolley; district secretary, Wisbech Archdeaconry, Mr. H. Giddings; district secretary, Marshland Branch, Mr. W. Cross. It was decided that the words 'Ringing Masters' should be deleted in Rule 10.

The question of printing the report was discussed. It was resolved that the reports be printed at the end of the financial year, and sixpence be charged for a copy. It was understood that the district secretaries ascertain the number of copies which would be taken in their districts.

Mr. J. Taylor proposed a vote of thanks to the incumbents of Great St. Mary's, St. Andrew's the Great, and Old Chesterton, and the Rector of the Church of our Lady and the English Martyrs for allowing their bells to be used.—This was seconded by Mr. Dennis, and carried with acclamation.—The Rector (the Rev. J. B. Marshall) replied, and said it gave him great pleasure to be present and to grant the use of their bells. Ringing in various methods was kept up during the afternoon at these churches, and the early comers raised the bells at the Church of our Lady soon after 10 o'clock.

It is hoped that the 7th at Great St. Mary's, which is cracked, may be recast before the next annual meeting.

The Hon. Secretary, in his report, stated that several district meetings had been held during the year, and that 23 peals had been rung: on the tower bells, six of Major and one Grandsire Triples, and 11 in various Minor methods, and five peals on handbells, three being Double Norwich Court Bob, one Kent Treble Bob, one Plain Bob.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

In his notes upon 1922, published in the annual report of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, the Master (the Rev. C. C. Hughes D'Aeth) says the year was one of steady work, and also one in which there have been some notable restorations of peals, and in at all events one tower, the addition of bells. There have been some useful combined practices, which must bring forth much good, for it is chiefly through the help and skill from outside that some of our small country places can get their first insight into scientific ringing. The Master notes, with pleasure that there is to be another peal of ten in the diocese, in a district which has been very active in peal ringing during the year.

Thanks are expressed to the branch secretaries and the energetic and hardworking general secretary, and the Master once more asks the clergy to take a little more active part in the ringers' department of church work.

The hon. secretary's report also records steady progress. Sunday ringing has been well maintained, and several more parishes have adopted the Peace Bell on Fridays. Notable among restorations have been those effected in the ancient towers of St. Mary's Church, Marlborough, and St. Peter's, Shaftesbury.

Financially the Guild had a successful year, a balance in hand of £30 0s. 2½d. at the beginning being increased to £51 7s. 7½d. at the close.

The Guild has 108 affiliated towers, including one ten-bell and 26 eight-bell towers.

CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting was held at Cleator Moor on Saturday, March 24th, in the Montreal Schools, and presided over by the Rev. — Blackburn, who was supported by the hon. secretary (Mr. J. J. Wallis, of Carlisle), and some 16 members from Arlecdon, Bideclark, Cockermouth, Carlisle, Egremont, and the local band.

Mr. Wallis was again elected hon. secretary, and Mr. Geo. Temby, of Egremont, was appointed to work in conjunction with him, as, owing to pressure of business, Mr. Wallis cannot attend every meeting.

Tea was afterwards partaken of, and subsequently some good practice was had on St. John's bell, Plain Bob and Kent Minor being rung.

The annual bell ringing competition was held at Crosthwaite on Easter Monday.
